shortly. Andy lligh, who has been playing left field for the Tribe since the 1919 season started, is to be let out, waivers having been asked on him by President Thomas R. Watkins. Bud Mercer, the young infielder who re-ported to the Tribe in Nashville some time ago, only to be stricken with malaria, reports that he is ready for action, and Mercer will be taken on. It is likely that Bud will be placed at short in place of Lou Christenbury, with Lou going to left field in High's chief fault has been his weakness with the stick, he being unable to make any headway with the wood against the Dixle pitching. He is batting under .250 and this mark is not sufficient for an out-fielder, so it was decided to ask waivers on him. As yet no club in the Southern has put in a claim for him. Unless he is claimed it is probable that he will follow Vincent Walsh and Bill Thweatt to the Augusta club, in the South Atlantic league, which is being managed by Dolly Stark. Dolly could use Andy fine, and unless other clubs in the Southern want him. Dolly will probably get him.

Mercer has been playing with the fast Dyersburg semi-pro, team during the past few days, and in three games with Caruthersville he got two triples, a home run and two doubles. He is expected to report Pirate adgregation.

Injuries to members of the Pirates have handcapped Manager Higo Bezede in keeping the aggregation within striking distance of the leaders in the Heydler circuit this season. Last spring many picked the Simoky City clan as the durk horse in the race, but instead of fighting it out for the leadershin the club is now engaged in a battle for a first division berth. Max Carey has been out of the game for the greater part of the season. The sensational base runner is suffering from an epidemic of boils, and it is not likely that he will get in the game for a few more weeks. Even when he is able to don a uniform it will take him several days to get into playing condition. Casey Stengel recently returned to the game after being forced out by injuries, the result of a rollision in the outfield.

Illness of Mother Prevents New Champion From Join-

NEW YORK, July '3.—Newark and envirous were somewhat disappointed when Jack Dempsey, the new heavy-weight champion, failed to appear with the Sells-Floto circus, Jack hasn't yet acquired the habit of contract breaking that becomes so prevalent in champions, the reason for his failure to show up being a call to his home to see his mother, who is ill.

Juck Kearns, the manager of the champion, made the agreement to appear during the present week with the circus, and from what we can learn he was willing to go through with it, but begged off for the time being on Jack's good reason. Otto Floto, who made the contract with Kearns, in the writer's presence kindly consented to a later date, and as soon as the champion returns he will join the shew, it is said.

CHRIS NEARLY A HERO.

Lou Christenbury was nearly a hero in the fifth inning of the second game he had home stolen, only to be chested out of it by Bischoff hitting a fly to the outfield.

Many fans thought the ran counted and cheered Chris to the color However, the run no more counted in this fly and then came over the plate before the ball was caught.

There may be other third sackers and infielders in Memphis who will field the ball more gracefully than Rumpf, however, it would be extrangly difficult for the most learned amateur fan to select a youngster who has improved to the extent that Rumpf has improved this season. He started the season in a fair fielding manner and his hitting was snaamodic. He is now hitting the ball hard and often and his fielding has reached the stage where he can be classed as an exceptionally reliable fielder who takes all chances without any thought of marring his fielding record.

Over in Atlanta Charley Frank is confident that it is a matter of time that he will have his arch-enemy, Jules Heinemann, flat of his back, or rather Cholity's club will have Heine's club with its shoulders to the mat. Frank has a good ball club, there's no denying that assertion. The Crackers have been playing a sensational brand of ball of late, and are closing in on Little Rock for second place henors. The Crackers are traveling fast and it wouldn't be surprising if they made some of the other teams hustle before the race is over even if they fail to cash in on the pig money.

Morrow is in fourth place with a cracking good ball club. We use the word "cracking" idvisedly, for it doesn' mean that the Bears are cracking by any means, but that they are cracking their whips and getting ready to claw some of those crups that are figuring on this year's rag. The Bears have a good offensive team and while not having the pitchers the other club have, they have a staff that is fall enough to get by with the kind of of fensive they put an Roberts was saved on three occasions Roberts was saved on three occasions by his team mates, Sammile Mayer going far into deep center and learning into the air to take what appeared to be a certain home run from Tex McDonald's bat and Dykes pulling several brilliant stops around second base that appeared certain hits. Poor base running on the part of Jonnard and Helfrich also assisted in the hitless game while sumpire Williams rendered one decision that saved Roberts.

Atlanta secred one run in the third on a single by Galloway, sacrifice fly by Higgins, Roberts and a sacrifice fly by Reed. In the fourth two-baggers by both Griffin and Dykes scored another run. Jonnard allowed but five hits and struck out six men.

The Birmingham Barons are yet to be heard from, for Carlton Molesworth has the best ball club in the league today from every point of view. The Moleymen are in fifth place, which is difficult to understand, but they'll certainly cash in before this year's race has been decided. The Barons were recently strengthened by the addition of Outfielder Summa, who was let out by Mobile via the waiver route, and with some of Moley's army players back in Baron spangles, the Birminghammers are certain to be in the hunt. Good pitchers and a fine wrecking crew will yet make Moley's club respected in all cities. The Memphis Chicks have shown a decided reversal of form and it is in the Tribe's advantage. The Chicks, after looking like a sickly last for some time, have suddenly started on the warpath, and are in sixth place, with all indications that they will soon be resting on a higher rung, as they are Railway Express Co.

HEYDLER UPHOLDS BOARD HEYDLER UPHOLDS BOARD

NEW YORK, July A. President Heydier of the Nationar league issued a statement yesterday upholding the action of the board of directors of the league in expunging from the records the second game played between Cinclinnati and Pittshurgh on July 6. The statement was made in answer to criticisms by Garry Herrmann, president of the Cincinnati club.
He termed the protest one involving a violation of the constitutional provisions of the league and not an ordinary complaint of a violation of the playing rules or against an umpire's rulings.
"I do not consider Mr. Herrmann's protests well taken. He has elected to remain away from the last two league meetings as well as one board meeting. At all of these meetings matters were considered in which the Cincinnati club was especially interested."

The Boston Americans poor record this year has been attributed in some quarters to dissatisfaction on the bart of the players toward Manager Barrow, but the team in a statement Fricay declared their medicore showing was due to "a combination of bad breaks, the failure of some of the regulars to perform up to their past standards, weak pitching and continued had luck in the field."
